1. Welcome by Christina Gonzalez at 6:03pm.
2. Pledge of Allegiance led by Christina Gonzalez
3. Approval of prior months minutes were approved with Jenn Mixon-Eick making a motion to approve and Christina Rodriguez seconding the motion.
4. SGA (Student Government) president Amanda Ban was at a soccer game and was unable to attend the meeting.
6. SAC President Christina Gonzalez. Box tops for Education was discussed and Candice Doyle has registered to be the contact for Marathon Middle High School. There will be flyers posted at the school. There is also a new app for your cell phone that can be downloaded to scan Box Tops.
7. Assistance Principal report by Liz Logan- Discussed STAR testing and informed us that 6th grade is testing math and reading on the same day per teacher request. Parents have until January 31st to sign up for the FOCUS parent portal. The PBIS committee ran a challenge for students to improve attendance and tardiness and it went very well. The students were rewarded with an ice cream social. The school will be starting another challenge soon.
9. Literacy Coach Jill Williams- The week of January 23rd is Celebrate Literacy Week. Each day has a different theme and teachers will incorporate it in their lessons for the day. The state of Florida informed Mrs. Williams that MHS was going to be recognized for our Family Literacy Night. Mrs. Williams, Chef Stanton and several students will be traveling to Tallahassee to be recognized.
