2014-2015 Dress Code for Marathon Middle and High School

Dress Code for High School

- No bare midriff tops are permitted. Shirts and tops must extend over the waist; no skin may be exposed at the belly/waist line. Shoulder straps on garments must be at least 3 inches wide.
- Underwear, boxers, or bras without complete covering are prohibited. Sagging pants that expose underwear are not allowed. All pants must be worn at the waist.
- All shorts, dresses, or skirts cannot be shorter than 6 inches above the knee.
- No head coverings of any kind or sunglasses are allowed in the classroom.
- Bandannas are not to be worn or displayed on campus or school activities.
- Prohibited tops: strapless garments, tube tops, bare back tops, see through tops or garments, shirts tied at the midriff, one shoulder strap tops, and muscle shirts. Students may not wear clothing that is either revealing or provocative. Pajamas are inappropriate to wear at school.
- All items that advertise or encourage the use of drugs, alcohol, or tobacco are prohibited.
- Spandex leggings and biker shorts are prohibited at school.
- Students are prohibited from wearing attire that may be used as weapons, such as chain belts, wallet chains, and apparel with spikes.
- Clothing articles shall not convey messages (writing, pictures, symbols, or logo) that are crude, vulgar, obscene, gang-related, and sexually suggestive or other things deemed inappropriate for school.
