

COVID In School

What You Need to Know

- If you are sick with anything, stay home.
- If someone in your house is being tested for COVID, everyone should stay home until you get a negative test result.
- Getting a negative test result does not change your quarantine period.

