HOB Athletics

Basketball

Wednesday evening's game did not start out particularly well for the Buccaneer girls basketball team. The team was working hard, they created turnovers and passed well. The only problem was that the "rock would not drop" as they say. Lily Gage turned all that around with defense. Playing as the "rabbit" in one of Coach Hughes's favorite defenses, Gage stole four straight inbounds passes at the end of the first quarter and scored on every one of them. A 5-3 game turned into a 13-3 game and the Bucs were off to a blowout 34-11 win.

The Buccaneer boys were not so kind. James Osbourne scored 13 in the first quarter, including a buzzer-beating three. He ended with 21 and Roman Garcia tallied 9. The final score was 46-2. No, really, it was 46-2.

The Bucs will host an always tough opponent on Saturday starting at noon as Key Largo School makes the trip down the Keys. Buccaneer boys and girls are now both 2-0.
