The AVID Café is open for business! This service project is for our AVID 2 Sophomores. Their mission was to reach out into our school community at lunch to share testimony of how using a planner and take focused notes. This will ensure students to get that grade boost-like coffee, but healthier. AVID Students did an amazing job reaching out and being inclusive to all. A giveaway will be drawn this Wednesday for a Starbucks gift card. Quarter 2 is kicking off AVID strong!

The Key West High School Fashion Marketing class, led by Ms. Lauren Albury, has generously donated 18 Brother sewing machines to the Marathon High School Fashion Program. Ms. Albury, now in her fourth year of teaching the Fashion Program at KWHS, has upgraded her students to newer machines, making the donation possible. Ms. Melody Randolph-Bartnik, Fashion teacher at MHS, and Ms. Rebecca Keenum, Assistant Principal, were present to gratefully accept the contribution on behalf of Marathon High School, which is participating in the Fashion Program for the first time this year.

The PBIS Club would like to thank everyone who made our fundraiser a success! Mrs. Keri Fink raised $14.28, Mr. Fink received $18.56, Mr. Wyrwicki pulled in $19.00 and Ms. Daigle brought in $25.37 dollars. Our KWHS community donated a total of $77.21 dollars to reward the students for their kindness, hard work and dedication to Key West High School.
