TIES Program Third Quarter 2024-2025

Keys Open Doors Foundation has been an unwavering sponsor to TIES. Not only do they supply us with funds to support eating two healthy meals a day and engaging in daily health and fitness activities, but the Jacksons also call to check in to see how Team TIES is doing and ask if we need anything. Their generosity of the heart is valued as much as their donation. Thank you for believing in TIES.

Our community VOLUNTEERS Nancy 3. and Letter Parks

A special thank you to our music volunteer, the lovely and talented Nancy 3. Hoffman! Nancy 3. joins us Friday mornings to teach music and dance! We have such fun together all while building skills such as rhythm, communication, emotional regulation, motor, body awareness, social, and cognitive functions.

A little trivia about Nancy 3. Hoffman. She holds the Guinness World Record for the largest collection of umbrella sleeves – over 2,000 of them! If you're in Peaks Island, Maine this summer, go give her a visit. Thanks to the Key West Woman's Club for sponsoring our percussion instruments! We have fun making music and learning rhythm with our maracas, tambourines, guiros, and hand-held drums.

We've had our fantastic bus driver, Letter Parks, volunteer to cook and dine with us twice this quarter. He made deviled eggs four ways and spaghetti with turkey meatballs. Who knew he was so talented?

TIES students work on campus and off with community-based instruction and classroom instruction. Thanks to the Marathon Job Coach, Craig Joly, for his help on Tuesdays taking students to SOS.

Online Learning Programs: IXL and N2Y

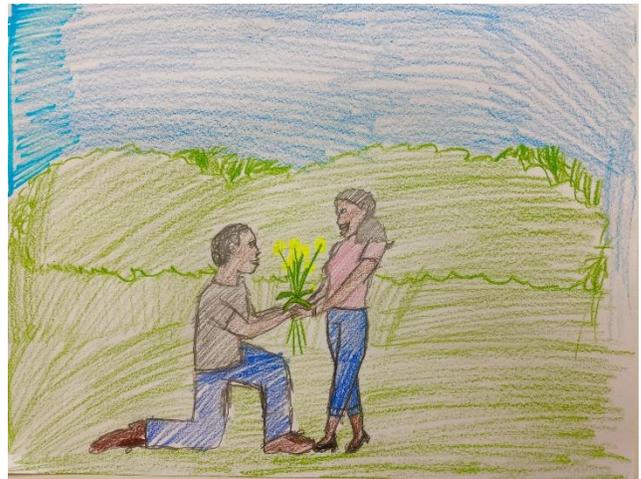

Students are filling in some forgotten learning and have answered over 5,000 questions on IXL. Students are individually learning how to read an analog clock, calculate elapsed time, use multiplication tables, count money, differentiate levels of meaning, spell rhyming words, comprehend short passages, and on N2Y, improve fluency. So much valuable learning is happening daily. Impressive stamina and dedication!

Andrez is consistently working on his art and has entered a series of KWHS art contests. Enjoy some of his creative drawings!

We have help from the wonderful KWHS kitchen staff! Thanks to Adam Yarboro for getting some meals to TIES and to our job coach, Christopher Day, for bringing over the box. We have fun deconstructing meals and supplementing them with things from our kitchen.

Grilled ham, cheese, onion, pickle, cilantro Yogurt Granola Parfait Roasted beets with feta, olives, mint

We celebrated Elvis's next-decade birthday with Swiss Miss sent by my supportive sister, Marisa LeFleur, and homemade orange-cranberry bread. Milk, oranges, and cranberries from the HS meals!

Each week, we purchase a South Florida-grown food box through the Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) program at SOS, to expand our healthy food choices and eat local organic delicacies. We enjoy foods we have never tasted – like the “chocolate pudding fruit” black sapote!

Thanks to the Key West Woman's Club for helping to sponsor our yoga teacher, Kelsey Hull, to work with TIES on health, fitness, and meditation. Kelsey's kind and gentle spirit brings light to our classroom and warmth to our hearts. She makes us focus on breathing and work hard, so we sweat, too!

Vincent continues with Special Olympics and worked supporting the Publix Torch Campaign. Dayana and Elvis wear their Half Shell shirts. Cris and his new bike from KWPD and Gary's Plumbing.

We had our classroom observation with Assistant Principal Nanette Murray. It was fun showing off our talents and having a nice “family meal” together. Elvis and Cris prepared chicken piccata over spaghetti while Dayana and Andrez made homemade chocolate chip cookies from scratch. Vincent was absent so we skipped the kale salad course. Along with cooking (the art) and baking (the science), we had lessons on mise en place, chopping styles, reading recipes, measurement, oven and stove safety, cleanliness and sanitation, and various types of pasta and their different uses and mouth feel. In size order, we tested capellini, spaghetti, linguini, and fettuccini! It was action packed, educational, and delicious.

Andrez Alvarez's family donated twice this quarter to our TIES program and gave us Valentine chocolates! What a gift you are. Thank you for additions to our pantry, fresh-food collection and sweet tooth.

Thanks again to Keys Open Doors Foundation and the Key West Woman's Club for your support of the TIES program and our adult students building their independence and love of community.

Namaste.

Peace.
