- The school will use funds reserved under this part to carry out activities and strategies consistent with the parent and family engagement policy as outlined in ESSA Section 1116(3).

Parent and Family Engagement Mission Statement

How is the parent and family engagement plan a shared responsibility?

How will this plan assist in providing high quality instruction for all learners?

Our mission statement: 'Building Leaders- Every Day!'

Increased parent and family engagement is linked to improved student achievement. Maximizing parental and family engagement and participation in their children's education by providing specific information and progress on curriculum mastery is provided including strategies to improve skills in targeted areas. Parents are informed of the resources available through their child's Classlink to support advancement in academic areas.

Involvement of Parents and Families

The school will involve parents in the planning, review and improvement of Title I programs including parental involvement and in the decisions process for how parent engagement funds will be used by:

Poinciana families will be invited to attend School Advisory Council (SAC) meetings as well as our Title I meetings. In addition to the opportunity to provide input at meetings, information will be shared through our digital communication board, weekly newsletter, The Pelican Post, and our website. Families will have the opportunity to provide feedback via the Title 1 Parent Survey, email, writing or in person. Parents can access agenda/minutes from the SAC meeting located on the school website or in the office. All input gathered in regards to the development of the School Improvement Plan will be formally addressed at SAC meetings through discussion, reflection and shared decision making. Title I meetings are held at the start and end of the school year. The first meeting agenda includes information regarding the purpose and implementation of Title I in our school and what the program means to parents and students. The second meeting is designed to evaluate the program and to give parents the opportunity to provide input that will be used in next year's planning process.

2023-2024

Coordination and Integration

The school will coordinate and integrate the following Parent & Family Engagement programs and activities with other Federal Programs, to the extent feasible and appropriate, in an effort to teach parent how to help their children with the home setting:

	Program	Coordination
1	ELL Parent Nights	An English Language Learner (ELL) Parent Night at Poinciana Elementary School is an event held twice a year however there are more events that are shared to parents that will engage them in their child's school career as well. The purpose of this event is to engage and empower ELL parents by providing them with important information and resources related to their child's education in a language-friendly and inclusive environment.
2	Early Childhood Education & VPK families	Kindergarten roundup is an event organized to introduce incoming kindergarten students and their parents to the school environment. Its primary purpose is to provide information about the kindergarten program, school policies, and to facilitate the registration process for new students. During kindergarten roundup, we offer various materials and resources to help parents and students transition smoothly into the school system. These may include information packets about school policies, curriculum overviews, details about school activities, and important dates. Poinciana also uses this opportunity to conduct screenings or assessments to gauge the readiness of incoming students and identify any potential academic or developmental concerns.
3	McKinney-Vento/CHIPS	Poinciana Elementary School aims to provide assistance and accommodations for homeless students and their families to ensure educational stability and support. Support and resources for homeless families at Poinciana Elementary school may include: Homeless Liaisons, Immediate Enrollment, Free and Reduced-Price Meals, School Supplies. Regarding Title I tutoring and other programs, the prioritization of homeless students, often referred to as "Children and Youth in Homeless Situations" (CHIPS), may vary. However, the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, a federal law, requires that homeless students have equal access to all educational programs and services, including Title I services. The law aims to remove barriers to education for homeless children and youth.

Flexible Parent Meetings

How will the school offer flexible opportunities for parents and families to participate in organized and ongoing activities and meetings?

There are two formal meetings held in the evenings as a result of survey information that indicates that the majority of parents prefer after work hours. Opportunities for parent involvement through workshops, curriculum events and student activities occur at various times throughout the year including before school, during school and after school.

Our School Advisory Council (SAC) and our Parent Teacher Organization (PTO) meets monthly or a total of ten times throughout the year. Per SAC guidelines, the meetings are held face to face with a virtual option for parents who are unable to attend in person. A translator is also provided if needed for the SAC/PTO meetings. SAC minutes and agendas are posted to our Title I webpage on our Poinciana Elementary website for reference.

We offer a school wide parent curriculum activity within the semester. The event is titled Pelican Palooza. The event brings together our EL Night, Art Show, STEM Night, Math Night, and ELA Night. In addition, community organizations are invited to share engaging, hands on activities that promote their mission. Title I funds contribute to these events. We offer a parent resource library that includes materials available for parent check out. Our Literacy Coach is available to assist parents with at home strategies and our teachers promote a positive school-to-home connection through conferences, websites and class activities.

We will notify parents of these meetings through a variety of approved communications, including parent newsletters, Facebook and Blackboard messages.
