

CSHS Daily Announcements

Tuesday October 15, 2024

Homecoming tickets are still on sale and are now $20. Also, the deadline for non CSHS students dance waiver is Monday October 21st. Please turn them in to Coach Szymanski by that date. Please buy all tickets online using the QR code. All students must meet school requirements to attend the dance. There will be no refunds.

Wednesday 10/16 is SAT School Day. All Sophomores and Juniors will be testing, and you will report directly to testing. You must arrive at school on time and with your charged Chromebook and charger and you may bring a calculator. Locations are posted to the Front Office window.

Special Olympics Unity Club (all volunteers, partners, and athletes) will have a brief meeting after school on Wednesday, October 16th, in Mrs. Hickory's classroom 4-106. Please join us. If you stay, you will need your own transportation home. Email Mrs. Hickory if you cannot attend.

Congratulations to Laila Jones who received a silver medal for Powerlifting Special Olympics Regionals this weekend! Congratulations to Gordon Gomila who received a gold medal for Powerlifting Special Olympics Regionals this weekend! A HUGE Thank you to our Unity Club volunteers who traveled to assist the athletes, coaches, and judges, and complete the preparation of weights and racks!
Connor Dixon, Ryland Dixon, Lucas Carballo, Noah Myers, Campbell Lavoie, Donovan Thiery, Talan Schafstall, Ayden Lane, Alex Mallidis and Gavin Guazzelli

Are you interested in the medical field? There will be a field trip to Mariners Hospital for "A Day in the life of a nurse" on Wednesday, November 6. This is a great opportunity to get a behind the scenes look at not only nursing, but lots of different medical areas and opportunities. There are a limited number of spots available for the trip, so please come get an application in the front office. Completed applications are due October 31.

There is an Art Club and National Art Honor Society meeting this Thursday in the Art Room right after school!

The Coral Shores Art Club and National Art Honor Society are hosting a Pumpkin Carving and Painting contest next Thursday October 24th right after school in the Art Room. Prizes for best carved and best painted. Look for our flyers with the QR code around campus to reserve your pumpkin, pizza, and drinks!

If you missed picture day, retakes are Wednesday, November 6th.

Hellooooo, Canes! Guess what tomorrow is? That's right—UNITY DAY. Here are some things we want you to remember for tomorrow. First, wear orange! Our teachers and staff will, too. Extra points if you can get your parents to wear orange! The most important thing to remember is that we are celebrating kindness, acceptance, and inclusion tomorrow. Every day is a new opportunity to wake up and ask yourself, how am I going to be kind today? How am I going to include others in my games or at lunch today? How can I show others that they are wonderful just the way they are? That's what Unity Day is all about. See you in your orange tomorrow! We will also be having games at lunch and an opportunity for you to take a pledge for inclusion.

BE SAFE, BE RESPECTFUL, BE READY TO LEARN, BE RESPONSIBLE, BE EMPOWERED

Happy Birthday shout outs for today, and over the weekend:

Gabriella Raffanello, Gray Wild, Paola Olivera, Samantha Bates, Fernando Sanchez, Daniela Leon Perez, Britney Acosta, Camila de Los Santos Monasterio, Mrs. Michelini and Ms. Fernandez Perez
