

CSHS Daily Announcements
Tuesday October 29, 2024

Are you a Junior or Senior interested in the medical field? There will be a field trip to Mariners Hospital for "A Day in the life of a nurse" on Wednesday, November 6. This is a great opportunity to get a behind the scenes look at not only nursing, but lots of different medical areas and opportunities. There are a limited number of spots available for the trip, so please come get an application in the front office. Completed applications are due October 31.

If you missed picture day, retakes are Wednesday, November 6th.

Seniors! All School Reports have been completed on Common App, if yours is not showing up as completed please email or see Ms. Isis in Ms. Haddad's office this week 11am-3pm.

The HIP club will be sponsoring a blood drive on Oct. 31. All donors will receive refreshments and a Halloween t-shirt. New this year, if you accumulate 4 donations before graduation, you will earn a cord to wear at graduation. There will be a table at lunch to get your consent form and sign up or stop by the school nurse's office.

Hello students! As you know this week is Red Ribbon Week and the theme is "Life is a Movie, Film Drug Free." Wear Red and have a chance to win movie tickets! Take the pledge and get your tickets during lunch at the Red Ribbon Table. We will have some fun activities on Wednesday and Thursday. Don't forget to wear red!

Canettes please do not forget that there is an important meeting after school on WEDNESDAY in Mrs. Andersen's classroom ((room 2-216) right after school.

The Magic: The Gathering Club will be meeting in the media center this Wednesday after school! All are welcome to join.

Come audition for coral shores drama club's spring production, 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee! Auditions will be held immediately after school in the PAC on Thursday, November 14th. Come prepared with 30 seconds of any acapella song that showcases your voice and be prepared for a cold read.

BE SAFE, BE RESPECTFUL, BE READY TO LEARN, BE RESPONSIBLE, BE EMPOWERED

Happy Birthday shout outs for today: Mira Jones & Ms. A